

PERSUASION MAP

by: Venus Chueh

Boy with the Pajamas

Introduction

The Boy in the striped pajamas should be read in the high school classroom. This is a book related to history and we can learn from it.

Main Reason 1

This book give an impression of how the Jews' situation and life were during the war.

Main Reason 2

Not all Germany hate Jew. There are people feel sympathize to them.

Main Reason 3

This book is about the miserable history, and this shouldn't happen again.

Facts or Examples

- 1 People were skinny and dirty and they never have enough food. The whole condition was terrible.
- 2 Soldiers were yelling at Jews. Pavel or other Jews were never benn respected.
- 3 Whether the people were Jews or not were all being killed. Soldiers family were effected, too.

Facts or Examples

- 1 Bruno's is friend with Shmuel and he always brings food to him and they were best friends.
- 2 Mother felt bad for the people in the concentration camp and had a fight with fahter.
- 3 In the book, grandma stormed out of the house because of it.

Facts or Examples

- 1 Students can learn the history by reading this impressive book.
- 2 Its shocking ending let people introspect.
- 3 People will try to let this event won't happen again.

Conclusion

High school students are worth to read this book because we can learn history from it and and make deep thinking, try to prevent the history happen again. Also, this book gives a great examples of how the people's life were during the war.